HOSPITAL SEX GIRL FAKED A FIT TO DODGE ARREST

By COLIN HURST

A WOMAN who was caught performing a sex act on a man in a hospital faked having a fit to try and avoid being arrested.

Shannon Baker had been taken to Yeovil Hospital by ambulance after suffering from a medical episode and was later seen performing the sex act on a male pal.

When cops turned up, she faked a convulsive seizure to try and dodge arrest.

Soaring cost of living hits lottery sales

OUTGOING UK Lottery operator Camelot has revealed falling sales of tickets and instant win games as it flagged signs that players had "tightened their belts" in the face of soaring living costs.

The firm, which recently launched legal action against the Gambling Commission after losing the lottery's next licence to rival Allwyn, saw sales drop three percent or £283.2 million to £8.1 billion in the year to March 31.

It said most of the drop was down to a 7% decline in sales of National Lottery Instant - down £240m to £3.4bn.

The group partly put the fall down to the end of COVID restrictions, which it said meant there was "greater competition for people's attention and spend".

But it also revealed that "growing economic uncertainty" held back instant sales as punters came under pressure from rising cost pressures.

Postal staff vote to strike

POSTAL workers started voting yesterday on whether to strike in a dispute over pay.

Around 115,000 members of the Communication Workers Union received ballot papers and will decide in the coming weeks if they want to mount a campaign of industrial action.

The union is demanding that Royal Mail Group negotiates with them to secure a "straight, no-strings" pay increase for employees.

It said management intends to impose a 2% pay rise - a "dramatic real-terms wage cut" because of soaring inflation.

BAPPY DAYS!

IT was never like this in Happy Days! More than 200 naked cyclists joined a nude bike ride at the weekend in the American city of Milwaukee - home of The Fonz and pals in the 70s TV series.

As clouds rolled in over the city, the riders congregated to celebrate the city's nudist event of the summer.

"This is a rain or shine event. So unless there is a tornado in the city, we'll ride," organisers told participants ahead of the event.

The Milwaukee Naked Bike Ride joins a worldwide movement that's taken place in more than 200 cities, from London to Madison.

First held in 2004, in Canada, the event was created by social activist, filmmaker, and writer Conrad Schmidt, to protest against oil dependency and to celebrate the human body.

Sturgeon's plan for lawful vote on independence

NICOLA Sturgeon says she plans to hold a second referendum on Scottish independence.

The First Minister laid out her plans to hold a lawful vote in October next year, with or without the formal consent of UK ministers.

The UK Government has held firm its view that "now is not the time" for another referendum.

The statement comes after Ms Sturgeon (above) published the first in a series of papers earlier this month aimed at making a fresh case for independence.

In the 2014 referendum on Scottish independence, the "no" side won with 55 percent of the vote.

Ms Sturgeon claims she has a democratic mandate for a referendum as independence-supporting parties - the SNP and the Scottish Greens - have a majority at Holyrood.

And she said the UK Government's "continued efforts to thwart the will of the people" would weaken its standing at home and on the international stage.

However, Scottish Secretary Alister Jack said he doesn't consider the pro-independence majority at Holyrood a mandate because "less than a third of the electorate" voted for the SNP.

defence source said that the Ministry of Defence does not comment on leaks.

"The Defence Secretary and the Prime Minister have always said the Government will respond to any changes in threat, which is why in 2020 the Ministry of Defence received a record defence settlement," the source said.

The worsening security situation for the UK will also be highlighted by the new head of the armed forces in his first major speech.

General Sir Patrick Sanders is expected say he has never known such a clear threat "as the brutal aggression of President Putin".

He is set to liken the war in Ukraine to the build-up to World War Two, describing the Russian invasion of Ukraine as a "1937 moment" for the UK.

British troops need to be ready to face Russia in the battlefield, a recent internal message from the general addressed to all ranks and civil servants said.

The invasion showed the need "to protect the UK and be ready to fight and win wars on land", he said.

The Government said it was spending £1.3bn on military support for Ukraine.

46 dead in lorry smuggle tragedy

AT least 46 people have been found dead in an abandoned lorry in San Antonio, Texas.

A fire official said 16 people, were "hot to the touch", had also been taken to hospital and were suffering from heat stroke and exhaustion.

San Antonio, which is 150 miles from the US-Mexican border, is a major transit route for people-smugglers.

Human traffickers often use lorries to transport undocumented migrants once they've managed to cross into the US.

San Antonio Mayor Ron Nirenberg said. "It's nothing short of a horrific, human tragedy."

DEADLY CHLORINE LEAK KILLS 13

AT least 13 people died and more than 250 were injured in a chlorine gas leak from a storage tank at the port of Aqaba, in Jordan.

The leak came after a tank filled with 25 metric tons of chlorine gas, being exported to Djibouti, fell while being transported.

A video posted on state television's Twitter page showed a storage tank falling from a winch and slamming into the deck of a ship, which was followed by yellow gas rising into the air as people ran away.

City health authorities called on residents to close their windows and stay in their homes.

Specialised teams are still dealing with the leak, the Civil Defence service said on its Facebook page, and evacuation planes were being sent into Aqaba.

Chlorine was used to deadly effect in World War I, but is also used to sterilise swimming pools.

Tennis fans' sex party ban

POSH Wimbledon residents are looking to put the brakes on post-tennis fun in their locality, and have covered the area with signs warning against drugs, booze and even sex parties.

Fed-up locals had a three-year reprieve from boozy tennis fans because of COVID restrictions.

But as they return for this year's fortnight of fun, signs have been placed around the region that read: "Game, Sex, and Match. No thanks! Anti-social behaviour such as drugs, booze and sex parties will not be tolerated. Police patrol this area regularly. You have been warned."

CHRIS Hemsworth revealed he wore a SOCK on his COCK for a nude scene in his latest film, Thor: Love and Thunder.

The actor, 38, was asked how he felt being naked while filming scenes with his co-star Russell Crowe.

"He does a great thing where he's also naked from the waist down. That made me feel at ease," Chris joked.

Director Taika Waititi, who was also appearing on Yank TV show The Project, chimed in: "On set, it's an agreement we have. I was naked too."

Chris was asked if he had a 'modesty garment' while doing the nude scenes.

"A sock. Just a sock," Chris quipped, to a chorus of hearty laughter from the show's hosts.

Chris joked that baring his bottom on-screen in the Marvel film has always been his 'dream'.

As far as we can see, it's been a bunch of ARSE!

But in a VERY good way.

Celebs these days like to show how much better their lives are than ours, by posting snaps of every glam and exciting thing they do on posers' site Instagram.

And research conducted by Midweek Sport's picture department has revealed that this involves showing off a lot of BUTTOCK!

Dr John Haptree, of the University of West Lancs, says there is an evolutionary reason for this.

"Female primates like to show they are potentially successful mates by exposing their rear ends," he explained.

Depp 'back as Jack' in £240m deal

JOHNNY Depp is rumoured to be getting paid £240 million to return to Pirates of the Caribbean after getting dumped from the franchise in 2018 amid abuse allegations by ex Amber Heard.

The 59-year-old had played Jack Sparrow in five Pirates movies, before Disney dropped him in the wake of 36-year-old Heard's 2018 Washington Post article which Depp claimed defamed him as a domestic abuser.

This reportedly caused the icon to lose out on a £18m payday.

However, following Depp's defamation suit win earlier this month, it appears Disney could be willing to reinstate him in the iconic role.

"Disney are very interested in patching up their relationship with Johnny Depp," a source said.

The rumoured comeback deal would see Depp "return as Jack Sparrow in Pirates of the Caribbean 6 and a spin-off Disney+ series about the early life of the swashbuckler".

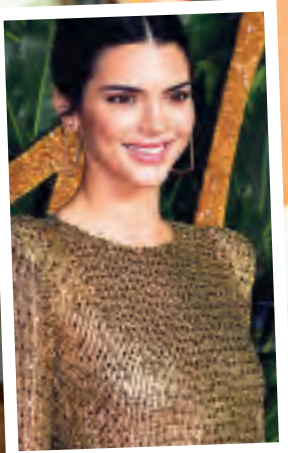

SUN'S out, bum's out for Kendall Jenner.

The 26-year-old supermodel shared a snapshot of herself to Instagram and the image showed her lying out in the sun, wearing nothing but a green baseball cap.

Taken as Jenner lay on her stomach, the photo sees her looking on her smartphone as she catches some rays on what appears to be a patio deck.

Alas, to comply with stuffy Instagram's no-bare-teat policy, the stunner was forced to censor her pert teat end before posting the snap.

SOME major US chemists are rationing sales of morning-after pills - amid a surge in demand after the US Supreme Court's overturning of Roe v Wade last week.

The pills are taken to prevent pregnancy soon after unprotected sex.

One top chemist, CVS, said the rations were intended to ensure "equitable access" to the contraceptives.

Commonly known as Plan B pills, the products are available without a prescription.

CVS noted that it still has an ample supply of prescribed morning-after medications.

The pills, which are typically used to terminate pregnancies up to 10 weeks, require doctor approval.

Amazon listings also showed limited supplies amid soaring demand.

Baker, 25, of Pembroke Close, Yeovil, pleaded guilty at Yeovil Magistrates to causing a nuisance or disturbance to an NHS staff member who was working at the hospital and refused to leave the premises.

Prosecutor Lenanton said the defendant was taken to Yeovil Hospital by ambulance after suffering a suspected medical episode and was accompanied by a male who was told he could not enter the

"The male was later allowed entry as staff were concerned about what he would do if he was not, and they were taken to a room," she said.

Death row man wins firing squad bid over injection

A COURT has sided with a death row inmate who wants to be executed by firing squad instead of by lethal injection.

Michael Nance was convicted of murder and sentenced to death in 2002 in the US state of Georgia for shooting and killing a bystander after a bank robbery in 1993.

Nance (above) argued in a petition that sedatives used in the lethal injection protocol would fail to "render him unconscious" due to medicine he takes for back pain and that his veins are "severely compromised", which could cause "intense pain and burning".

Execution by firing squad, he argued, would lead to a "swift and virtually painless" death.

Supreme Court Justice Elena Kagan wrote in relation to the 5-4 majority: "A death row inmate may attempt to show that a State's planned method of execution, either on its face or as applied to him, violates the Eighth Amendment's prohibition on 'cruel and unusual' punishment."

Reed was charged with multiple counts of rape and sodomy, as well as unlawful transaction with a minor.

In a court filing, the defence claimed the student was old enough to consent to a sexual relationship under the state law, which therefore meant Reed's rights under Kentucky's constitution were violated when she was arrested.

According to an indictment, Reed was charged because she was 'in a position of authority' of someone under the age of 18.

STUNNED cops found 110 SNAKES at a remote farm after a woman turned up at hospital with a snake bite.

She suffered breathing difficulties after an incident at her farm in Salzgitter, near Hanover, Germany.

The 35-year-old woman drove to a hospital in Salzgitter and told doctors that one of her rattlesnakes had bitten her finger.

With her condition rapidly deteriorating, and the authorities having hastily requested an antidote, the police visited the farm and found dozens of snakes there.

Specialists determined that the collection of snakes contained venomous and non-venomous specimens that were not found in appropriate terrariums.

All the snakes have been confiscated.

The former Apprentice star enjoyed a luxurious boat trip on Lake Garda in Italy last week, showing off her toned figure with a slew of bikini snaps.

The 35-year-old sported a curved bust black bikini with a silver chain strap detail for the day out.

Posing for some shots while out on the water, Luisa seemed in high spirits as she threw her hands in the air and beamed at the camera.

The beauty had her brunette locks swept away in a high ponytail, with a silk hair scarf wrapped around the up do.

Man on the run shot himself in cops' standoff

A MAN who escaped from a New York courtroom after being convicted of attempted murder two weeks ago shot and killed himself during a standoff with cops in Orlando, Florida.

Michael Green, 36, was found dead from a self-inflicted gunshot wound at Mosaic at Millenia Apartments, hours after barricading himself inside one of the units, the Albany County District Attorney's Office wrote in a statement.

Green (above) had spent two weeks on the run from law enforcement after he fled an Albany County courthouse in upstate New York before a jury found him guilty of attempted murder and criminal gun possession stemming from a drive-by shooting.

The attempted murder charge carried a 25-year prison term.

Green had been charged with firing a gun in the direction of a house in Colonie, New York, in 2020, where several people, including children, were living.

WOMEN are threatening not to have sex with men in protest at the US Supreme Court's decision to overturn Roe v. Wade.

Protests erupted following the court's ruling to overturn women's federal right to abortions, with 26 states expected to further restrict or outright ban abortions.

Now, women are being called on to withhold sex from men 'until abortion rights are federal law' as calls for a nationwide 'sex strike' gain momentum on social media.

'Women of America: Take the pledge. Because SCOTUS overturned Roe v. Wade, we cannot take the risk of an unintended pregnancy, therefore, we will not have sex with any man - including our husbands - unless we are trying to become pregnant,' one Twitter user wrote.

Scott Blauvelt, 50, has worked as a prosecutor for Butler County, Ohio, and the city of Hamilton in the same US state.

But now the Ohio Supreme Court has indefinitely suspended him from practicing law in Ohio.

Police caught Blauvelt driving while naked FIVE TIMES between 2018 and 2021.

He said he had engaged in similar behaviour at other times but was not caught by police, according to court documents.

The Ohio Supreme Court previously

Perv brief struck off after caught for FIFTH time suspended Blauvelt for two years in June 2020 after he pleaded guilty to public indecency and reckless operation of a vehicle.

In November 2020, court documents allege Blauvelt exposed himself while driving on Interstate 75.

A woman observed a "naked white male" staring at her while performing a sex act on himself.

When the woman pulled out her phone to record what was happening, Blauvelt allegedly gave her a "thumbs up", hit the brakes and then drove up beside her again, only this time wearing a mask.

Blauvelt started a two-year programme to treat compulsive sexual behaviour disorder in May 2021, according to court records.

In 2006, while Blauvelt was the city prosecutor in Hamilton, he was caught walking naked through the city building on more than one occasion.

He was eventually fired and had his law licence suspended.

One woman said she was followed from the beach to her car while being asked for sex before jumping in her vehicle and locking all the doors.

Another had an unusual conversation at the same beach in which the man was asking for her number and suggesting they go somewhere more private.

Another woman walking her dog said the man asked if they could have sex and "make the most of the time alone" because "she was really fit".

COP 'BEATEN TO DEATH IN TRAINING EXERCISE'

A COP was beaten to death by fellow officers during a training exercise that simulated a mob attack, a new wrongful death claim filed by his mother claims.

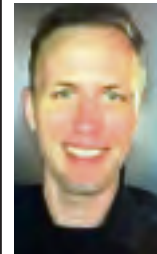

Houston Tipping, 32, died three days after the on-duty incident at the LAPD's Elysian Park Academy on May 26.

Tipping (below) was acting as a bike instructor in a scenario that involved grappling with another officer, LAPD said in a statement after his death.

At some point, "Officer Tipping fell to the floor and suffered a catastrophic spinal cord injury", police said.

Tipping's mother, Shirley Huffman, filed a notice of claim against the city, alleging wrongful death and civil rights violations. Such claims often precede lawsuits.

Huffman's claim alleges her son was "repeatedly struck in the head severely enough that he bled" and that he suffered multiple breaks in his neck, causing his death.

A WOMAN is reeling after learning her husband of 10 months is actually female... despite the fact they frequently "had sex".

The 22-year-old wife, identified only as NA, has pressed charges against her estranged spouse over the deceit.

"I'm still scared. I'm shaking when I go out," the horrified bride said.

NA first met Ahnaf Arrafif (above) on dating app Tantan.

The pair met in person in May 2021. Arrafif proposed soon after and they tied the knot in July.

NA said she believed they had penetrative intercourse.

But she admitted she was asked "not to look directly at Arrafif's genitals" and her "eyes were covered with a cloth" whenever things turned steamy.

NA also alleged that Arrafif would only get naked with the lights off, so sex was had "in a state of blackout".

BEEN shopping recently?

Hurt, didn't it?
With headline inflation running at 9.1%, anyone doing their weekly grocery shop knows that prices of food are surging even faster.

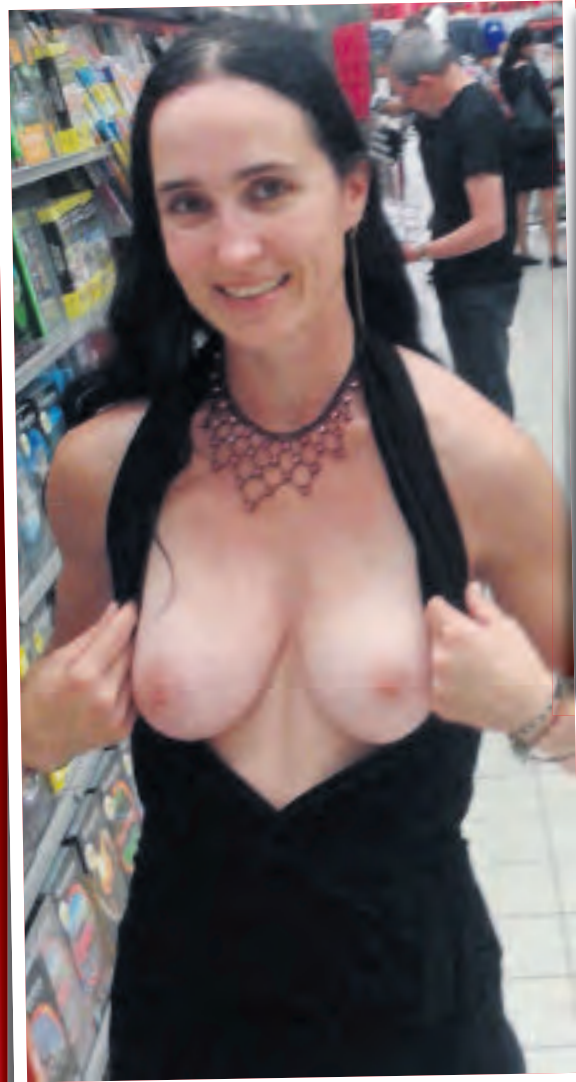

Now households are cutting back on food shopping as the rising cost of living bites into budgets.

Nearly half of adults surveyed by the Office for National Statistics (ONS) said they had bought less food in the past fortnight due to higher prices.

The ONS found that sales in supermarkets dropped 1.5% in May, with a 2.2% fall in specialist shops such as butchers and bakers.

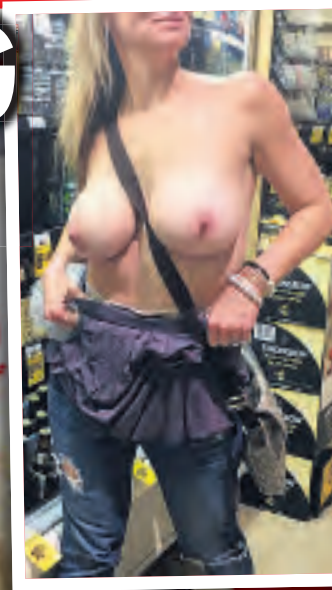

We can't do anything about inflation but we can make your shop a little bit happier – by printing five pages of ladies doing their shop in the altogether...

THE INNOCENT

SERIAL killer Anthony Kirkland burned the corpses of those he slaughtered in a bid to 'purify' his soul. But it will take more than flames to erase the memories of the callous rapes and murders of the five innocent women he torched...

If you're one of the many people who believe the length of a prison sentence should never be reduced no matter how much 'good behaviour' an inmate shows, then you might want to look away now.

By KOURTNEY KENNEDY
news@sundaysport.co.uk

years later, however, Kirkland was a free man.

As of September 2003, he was given a second chance, an opportunity to start making amends for his crimes.

Spree

So how did Kirkland repay the trust of those who deemed it appropriate to free him from incarceration?

He went on a rape and murder spree that claimed another four victims – two of whom were teenagers.

Each one was raped and then engulfed in flames. As he himself told cops: "I can't control me. Fire purifies. I can't keep happiness."

Even after confessing to his crimes, it still proved hard for justice to come his way.

He was first handed a death sentence in 2010, only for that to be overturned.

It took until August last year for him to be placed back on Death Row when Judge Patrick Dinkelacker told him: "If we as people, as believers of law and justice, are going to have the death penalty imposed on the worst of the worst, then if not you, Anthony Kirkland, who?"

Did Kirkland offer an apology? Not at all.

He simply moaned about how little money he had available to him in prison.

Judge Dinkelacker snapped: "It makes me sick to my stomach to have you stand here and talk about your money in prison when we're talking about 13 and 15-year-old kids that you killed."

Upon his sentencing, Tanika Crawford – the mother of 15-year-old victim Casonya Crawford – broke down and wept.

She said: "He took a lot of light from us. Casonya was a joy. She honestly was."

"I was thinking on the way here about those chubby cheeks and them big ol' bright eyes. It's just hard."

Kirkland, now 49, is due to be put to death in March next year.

Prosecuting lawyer Joe Deters said: "I've now tried four serial killers in my life and, for me, Anthony Kirkland cannot be killed by the state of Ohio soon enough."

As is the case with many serial killers,

NO REMORSE:
At his trial, killer Kirkland moaned about having little money in prison

Kirkland had suffered a horrific childhood.

His lawyer, Tim Cutchner, told jurors how Kirkland had been physically abused by an alcoholic father for eight years from the age of six, suffering 'head injuries' in repeated beatings.

Cutchner said: "As the oldest of four children, Kirkland bore the brunt of his temperamental outbursts."

Cracked

To make matters worse, Kirkland had also suffered several accidents which caused further head injuries, exacerbating his mental trauma.

Aged 17 and working at an industrial container recycling firm, he'd fallen and cracked his skull, resulting in severe memory loss.

In 2004, shortly after he'd left prison, he crashed a motorbike and broke several bones in his face.

A girlfriend at the time described how

Kirkland began to suffer horrific headaches and 'became a completely different person'.

He lost his job, was told to stop going to church and ended up homeless, living in a van.

Kirkland's first killing was brutal.

And according to Leonard Douglas – Leola Douglas's twin brother – it was a murder that Kirkland simply went on to 're-enact' four more times.

Speaking recently, Leonard said: "It never should have happened that."

"After what he did to my sister, I feel like he should never have got out of jail."

"He just got a slap on the wrist, then he turned around and did the same thing to four other girls."

"I know how hard it is on the other families – they've still got fresh wounds."

"My wounds are old, but they still hurt just as bad."

Between 2006 and 2009, Kirkland went on to slay Casonya Crawford, 15, Mary Jo Newton, 45, Kimya Rolison, 25, and Esme Kenney, 13.

Esme, the final victim, was raped and murdered while on a short half-mile run around a reservoir close to her home.

Gorgeous

Her mother, Lisa Kenney, recalled how she went searching for her missing daughter that fateful afternoon in March 2009.

She told jurors: "Esme was the baby of the family. She would still come and sleep in my bed every morning."

"She'd been excited. She wanted to go running because the weather was gorgeous."

"She was trying to get me to go around the reservoir with her. She was like, 'Let's go for a run!'

"I didn't know how much time passed, but I suddenly sat up and thought, 'Oh my God, Esme isn't back'. I just knew something was wrong."

"I ran across the street barefoot. There was a tree and I saw a big pair of jeans underneath."

"I immediately thought she'd been abducted."

Police were alerted. A short while later, Kirkland was found nonchalantly sitting under a nearby tree, cradling Esme's iPad and watch.

The next morning, Esme's body was found. When Kirkland was arrested and charged with murder, he soon began to blurt out details of his other atrocities.

Casonya's gran had called police when the teen didn't return home from her friend's house one night in May 2006. Her body was found in a wooded area, burned beyond all recognition.

Her front teeth had been knocked out.

A month later, police had another body – that of Mary Jo Newton.

She had been set ablaze from the waist down, so detectives did not know whether she had been sexually abused.

In December 2006, Kimya Rolison vanished from home.

Her body wasn't found until two years later.

Threatened

Again it was badly burned and pathologists also revealed she'd been stabbed through the neck.

Police actually had Kirkland in custody in May 2007 – five months after Kimya's death – but for completely unrelated reasons.

He spent 115 days in jail after he threatened to kill his 18-month-old son and held a 'sharp grilling fork' to his neck, court documents state.

After his release, he was soon arrested once more – this time for offering to pay his friend's young daughter for sex.

He was hit with a public indecency charge and spent the next 12 months in jail.

The mayhem only continued when he was released.

On March 1, 2009, he broke into a man's home and repeatedly stabbed him with scissors, according to police documents.

Kirkland wasn't found until a week later – by which time he'd already murdered Esme.

After many hours of coaxing, Kirkland finally admitted everything.

Speaking about Esme, he said: "Things kinda got out of hand."

"It was an accident –

my temper was to blame."

Even after Kirkland had viciously assaulted her, Esme had tried to barter for her life.

Kirkland added: "She offered me her watch. She was apologetic."

"I know I kicked her and punched her in the stomach."

"I stomped her. I punched her a couple of times."

"Can I take you to where she is?"

Kirkland was handed life sentences for the murders of Kimya and Mary Jo, and given death sentences for the killings of Esme and Casonya.

That's in spite of his defence lawyer, Rich Wendel, pleading in court: "Judge, you heard testimony that his brain structures were actually different.

"He has evolved differently. His brain became, for a lack of a better term, just not normal any more."

In the end, it was Hamilton Common Pleas Judge Charles Kubicki who summed up the case best.

Reality

"That was a very, very difficult trial because it was so horrific," he concluded.

"It's a case I won't forget."

"A lot of times you think your imagination is worse than reality – but in this particular case, the reality was way worse than anything your imagination could come up with."

MONKEYS STEAL 4,000 ACRE FARM

PRIMATE MINISTERS:
Monkeys are now in charge

THE Planet of the Apes movies were NOT mindless entertainment...

They were a warning. And now that warning has become a chilling reality, as monkeys have begun their bid to become humanity's overlords.

Farmers in lower hilly areas of the Kangra district in India have been forced to give up cultivation and have fled the area, due to the fear of the expanding population of monkeys.

Sources say around 4,000 acres have been abandoned to monkeys, which appear to have formed their own kingdom in the area.

Ignored

Farmers say the problem arose a decade ago but successive state governments ignored the monkey insurgency and failed to find an effective solution, forcing many of them to abandon their fields.

Farmers Subhash, Khial, Diwan and Kishor Singh say they used to cultivate maize. Even after spending sleepless nights to protect their crop, they got only a fraction of the yield due to the monkey menace, they claimed.

Similarly, Krishan Singh of Rinna village, Anoop Singh and Sat Pal of Thakurdwara village and Ranbir Singh of Chatta village said they had failed to recover even input cost by selling their maize, as monkeys destroyed a large part of the crop and attacked farm workers trying to harvest what was left.

The Kangra unit of the Bharatiya Kisan Farmers Union has appealed to the Chief Minister to find a permanent solution to the menace.

The government began to sterilise monkeys in 2009 but halted after complaints from monkey rights activists.

HORNY Holly Henderson says she has no time for the likes of domineering Fifty Shades of Grey character Christian Grey.

That's because the scorcher – famous for dating footballer Mario Balotelli – always likes to be the boss in the bedroom.

Scouser Holly said that she's not against the idea of being tied up, but she's more likely to be the one taking control – and she loves to ride a guy hard and fast.

When asked her favourite sex position, the 34E model said: "If I had to pick one, I would say me on top. I like being in control and it means the guy can have a good look at my boobs, too."

"And if they're crap in bed then I can at least make sure I have a good time and get myself off. But if a man is rubbish in bed, he won't last long with me!"

"I've tried bondage – I've been tied up and dominated a bit in bed. But I'm more likely to be the dominant one."

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

Glastonbury: A 3-day advert for Labour

LIKE most people, I spent the weekend with the remote control in hand trying to find anything to watch that WASN'T the Glastonbury festival.

The BBC had its usual wall-to-wall coverage of the pretend hippy outing lasting a mere three days and costing many millions of our licence fee pounds.

This is all entirely deliberate.

The Beeb is obsessed with the goings-on at Worthy Farm because it's firmly lodged right up its own fundament.

Left-wing, right-on, queer as folk, f**k the Tories, f**k Boris – and all before the watershed designed to protect little ears.

Because it's okay for kiddies to hear "f**k the Tories" being bellowed from a stage by a bird with pins in her face to tens of thousands in front of her and a few hundred thousand watching at home.

For three days, it was a non-stop barrage of spouty, whiny, uber-leftie, up-the-workers diatribe delivered over and over again by all the usual suspects.

Harrowing

Sometimes, just to break up the seemingly endless Marxist lectures and protests about a vote in the United States that has literally nothing whatsoever to do with us, there was the odd tune, too.

And when I say "odd", I really mean odd.

Like Sir Paul "Fab Macca Thumbs Aloft" McCartney strangling the hell out of some of his back catalogue, according to some critics.

But Glastonbury isn't a music festival any more.

It's not even a love-fest.

It's a three-day political statement and, like all party political broadcasts, it should bloody well say so.

That it's designed for £24,000 yurtdwelling trust-fund millionaires from the shires, with tickets starting at £260 for entry, that's fair enough in itself – whatever floats your boat.

If you want to swig champagne with other pretend socialists while gazing loftily down at the little people from the harrowing north wallowing in mud, that's up to you.

But it's not fair enough when the Beeb pounces on it as an example of how the British people think, just because that's how Beeb people think themselves.

God only knows how many people the corporation sent to the festival but it can't have been a bad gig for them, could it?

Not for them staying in rain-soaked tents in a sodden field.

No, they'd have been higher up the food chain nearer the showers and the hot water and within spitting distance of the organic falafel stall and black lesbian stilt performers.

There were quite literally hundreds, if not thousands, of BBC bods – it was, after all, a massive outside broadcast on its radio, TV and website outlets – in attendance.

And ALL of them being paid to be there by us, the mugs at home.

Alas, my grumpiness meant I missed out on Macca, but it also meant missing the Ukraine president's plea for unity to the roaring crowds, who are so brave they wore Ukrainian colours on their faces.

But at least his message held an element of importance.

I also missed out little Greta Thunberg, who still looks like someone in desperate need of a normal teenage life.

And still keeps saying the same thing, even though we were all meant to die in a fireball last year and the year before that, weren't we?

Next year they might as well call it "the Labour party conference" and have done with it.

I'm bisexual so I love to boss around a man or a woman – but especially a man.

I'm into burly, masculine Viking-esque guys and it makes me so horny to see a strong submissive one under my control.

I love to dress up to look the part of a dominatrix.

My favourite outfit is my skin-tight latex catsuit which I wear with mega high heels and my long hair styled curly.

I'm a strong, confident woman who is used to getting her own way. My lover must agree to do exactly what I say, or he or she will be punished.

Drunk knifeman shot by cops after high-speed chase

AN "intoxicated" knife-wielding man was shot by cops after stealing a marked patrol car and then trying to respond to a domestic-violence call.

Jeremiah Taylor, 33, who was on probation for menacing, theft and DUI, broke into a Park County Sheriff's Office station in Colorado and stole a cop car.

He then drove to neighbouring Teller County on a call about domestic violence, where the reporting party said he "appeared intoxicated" and had "damaged" the car, an arrest affidavit said.

Taylor led patrol cars on a 110mph chase before he crashed and ran off into woodland.

Once cornered, he pulled out a silver knife and was shot once after a Taser failed to stop him, authorities said.

He was taken to hospital "due to self-inflicted knife wounds".

Taylor (above) has been charged with aggravated theft of a vehicle, impersonating a peace officer, reckless driving, resisting arrest and reckless endangerment.

'Sabotage' goat wounds Russkies with grenades

A GOAT in Ukraine triggered tripwires rigged by Russian forces, setting off a blast that injured several of Vladimir Putin's own soldiers, Ukrainian officials said.

The Defence Intelligence of Ukraine said the goat sabotage took place in the village of Kinski Rozdory in Zaporizhzhia Oblast.

The agency claimed about 40 Russian troops occupying a hospital set up a "circular defence" by placing tripwires connected to grenades around the perimeter.

But a goat from a neighbouring farm paid them a visit.

"As a result of a chain reaction, several (Russians) sustained injuries of varying degrees of severity," the Defence Intelligence wrote.

It's unclear whether the goat survived the blast.

Up the ARSE!

French porn star Émilie Delaunay, better known by her porn name Liza Del Sierra, has released a limited edition Bordeaux blend in conjunction with a wine estate in her native South West France.

Liza, who hails from Bordeaux, announced she had given her name to the "Cuvée Del Sierra".

The Frogs normally call their wines 'cuvée' but cuvée is a Frog pun - cul being French for arse.

The wine is a Merlot-Cabernet Sauvignon blend from Buzet producer Château Moncassin and is adorned in what is described by Alexandre Abellan (of French wine news website Vitisphere.com) as "representing kama sutra scenes as might have been reimagined by the late American pop artist Keith Haring".

Project

"It's quite out-there," Liza, 36, said.

"It's not the most straightforward bottle to put on the table for a Sunday lunch with three generations around the table. Or perhaps if you remove grandpa's glasses."

Only 3,000 litres were produced and, at £21 a bottle, can be found on her website lizadelsierra.fr.

The project came together following Liza's holiday at the château, where she recuperated following long shifts during the COVID pandemic.

The porn star and porn director currently works as a nurse.

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY

Dear Dani,

I'VE been working from home – or rather, I haven't.

You see, since the IT department gave me a laptop so I didn't have to go to the office, I've found I can't help drifting onto porn sites.

I've watched virtually every type of sex act video going, including threesomes, cum-shots, anal, fisting, mature, cuckold, cream pie, you name it.

My favourite is lesbo stuff – watching hot women lick each others' fannies out and scissoring has me stripped and pulling on my pud in no time.

But talking of time, my porn watching has meant I've fallen way behind in my work and I fear for my job – but I can't help myself. Help!

MT, Oldham

Dani says...

SAVE your wanking till work's over.

Dear Dani,

I NEED some advice about one or two of my employees who are working from home.

Obviously, it was an important move to keep our staff safe, and I was surprised at how well it worked out...at first.

Recently, productivity in some areas seems to have tailed off quite a bit and I have a feeling some people are not putting in the hours they should be.

Worse than that, I think they may be using company property, namely the laptops we gave them, for uses other than those for which they were intended – ogling porn sites, to be perfectly frank.

Can you suggest how I can put a stop to it?

PC, Oldham

Dani says...

OH, I think things will get back to normal soon!

Footwear fittie had lots in store for me!

Dear Dani,

I'M a 27-year-old building worker.

In February I needed new boots so I called at a nearby shoe shop where one of the female staff is really fit.

As I walked in she was half-way up a ladder moving some boxes around.

She's about 40 and at least 12-stone but the sight of her rounded arse at eye-level got me pretty aroused.

I couldn't help letting out a builder's wolfwhistle but the shock caused her to lose her balance.

Smartly, I leapt over the counter and caught her.

I said sorry and explained that her sexy bum had been a big turn-on.

Instead of being cross she invited me to follow her into to the storeroom.

Then she sank to her knees, unzipped my fly and sucked on my knob.

She was an expert and teased the tip with her hot tongue before taking the entire shaft into her throat.

Then she unbuttoned her blouse and started fondling her breasts, then unzipped her skirt and leaned back on one of the shelves, spreading her thighs.

She pulled aside her panties and she slipped her middle finger into her love-tunnel.

So I thrust into her and f**ked her hard and long.

I've been itching to go back and shag her again, but this bloody lockdown means the shops have been shut.

What shall I do?

GM, Beds

Dani says...

WHERE have you been? They're back open now!

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week DANI MAYE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Why do I love it when my girl shags others?

Dear Dani,

MY problem is I can't get enough of naughty women.

While nice girls leave me cold, bad girls really inspire me.

What worries me is that girls with loose morals are not the ideal type to be getting involved with, are they?

And I've really got it very bad at the moment. The object of my lustful desires is a very tall, big-titted, fat-arsed darling I met in a country park.

Her idea of a cosy night at home is togging herself up in black seamed stockings and f**king herself with a certain item from the salad container of my fridge with a couple of hard-boiled eggs thrown in it for good measure.

And while she plunges it deep into her gaping maw she regales me with stories, all of them true, about her latest sexual conquests, all of them perfectly disgusting.

I'll give you an example.

Last night, she came round to my place and couldn't wait to tell me about her latest adventure.

Apparently, she'd let herself get picked up by sweaty builders hungry for hard sex.

Prick

They took her back to one of their flats, where she knelt astride one of them and slid up and down on his prick.

His mate stood over her teasing her bum and the edges of her c**t with a huge vibrator, before she took his stonking hard-on into her eager mouth and gobbled him until he spunked over her face.

Whether it was planned or otherwise she doesn't know, but in the middle of this depraved threesome two more guys off the same building site walked in and she ended up f**king all four of them.

None of the gave a thought to social distancing, it seems.

They gave her a really good seeing-to, though they in no way treated her roughly.

In fact, they bought her a slap-up takeaway meal afterwards. But it still makes her a right saucy slut in my book.

But the filthier her behaviour, the more I love her for it.

What makes me such an animal where women are concerned?

SW, Lancs

Dani says...

IT'S likely that classier females heighten your galloping inferiority complex, but don't worry about it.

Dear Dani,

BACK in December I moved north and decided to join the local rugby team.

I've always enjoyed a spot of amateur league action and it's a good way of socialising.

The refreshments at the club were made by a woman of about 40 and her sister, who is about 35 and just as good-looking.

In March, after a home game, I offered to help clear up while the rest of the lads went to the pub.

To be honest, I was trying to cut back on the boozing a bit, so it was a better excuse to make to the other players.

I'd only been collecting plates for a minute when the elder woman came up behind me and thrust her hand down my shorts, grabbing my suddenly rigid cock.

Her sister then came over and took my hand and put it down her shirt – to have a good fondle of her fabulous tits.

The pair of them got me so hot we all ended up in the showers where I managed to shag one while licking out the other.

We then swapped round and did it in all manner of positions – the younger sister was rimming me at one point while I slipped it up her sister's bumhole!

I wish we could get back to it again!

Numbers within the 070 range have been designated as Personal Numbers by OFCOM and are available for the use of Personal Numbering Services (PNS). The formal definition of such services, as set out in the National Telephone Numbering Plan is: "a service based on number translation that enables End-Users to be called or otherwise contacted, using a single personal telephone number, and to receive those calls or other communications at almost any telephone number, including Mobile Numbers." 070 numbers are not premium rate however the cost of calls to 070 number may vary between service providers.

ALWAYS HOME OF TOPLESS BABES

JO RNY jaye ROSE

WELSH wonder Jaye Rose is delighted it's summer because she loves being nude in her garden.

The beauty said: "I love stripping off and sunbathing naked. I assume the neighbours can't see – certainly nobody has complained!"

And she also likes a bit of indoor action too.

Jaye loves lubing up her massive 32E boobs to give lucky fellas an amazing tit-wank.

Jaye, from Cardiff, said: "Not many blokes have been with a woman with huge boobies like mine."

"So they've never really felt the sensation of having the entire length of their cock enveloped by a huge pair of fleshy boobs."

"All it takes is a bit of lube or baby oil and they're in heaven – it's like they're in a different world!"

"Every time I've done it, the bloke involved has told me it was the best sensation ever."

"And I love it, too – not only do I get off on them feeling good but it feels nice for me."

"I usually make sure to catch their spunk in my mouth at the end of it."

"Well, it's only polite after all!"

SPECIAL OFFER: ANY 3 PRIVATE SHOPS DVD'S FOR £25 (was £75)

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Smallc*** and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of nosh as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVD's at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

KAREN WHITE

DOMINIC Mitchell might work with melted metal all day but he's hard as a rock when he sees Karen White.

Dominic, 55, from Sheffield, fancies the pants off glamour legend Karen from Brighton and is in awe of her 34D boobs.

He said: "I'll never bump into her but I guess having photos of her topless is more than enough – one glance at her pictures and I feel a twitch down south."

KATIE RICHMOND

LEGGY lovely Katie Rishmond caught the eye of airport worker Craig Whittaker.

Craig, 39, works at Luton Airport and helps pilots land and take off safely but there's only one woman he wants to land.

He wanted a hot pic of Manchester beauty Katie and we hope this one of her showing her 34C boobs won't disappoint.

Craig said: "Katie's stunning and she's the perfect tease."

DIANA DOLL

BURLY builder Steve Gilbert would love to cop a feel of Diana Doll's sweater-stretchers.

The 43-year-old from Tamworth, Staffs, wants a photo of Diana to show work pals just how fit she is.

So we've dug out the hottest photo of the Watford stunna with her perfect 34C boobs on full display.

He said: "I can't wait for the lads to see her, there'll be no doubt about who's the fittest Sport girl once they see Diana – I'll be proved right once again!"

SPORT STARTS HERE WITH RACING

Craven
Trainer:
Richard Fahey

Grace can do us a favour

GRACELANDS GIRL will surely get off the mark in the Restricted Maiden Fillies' Stakes up at Musselburgh.

To say Tim Easterby's charge has been knocking on the door would be an understatement, with a debut third followed by three successive runner-up finishes.

The daughter of Ifrraaj looked well positioned to oblige on her latest attempt at Beverley, but was ultimately no match for Luckyboylovelywife, who has since disappointed at Kempton but did certainly not run her race.

Surprise

A return to a mile in Scotland should be a help to Gracelands Girl and there are likely to be some long faces in the Easterby camp if she is unable to make the most of what looks a gilt-edged opportunity.

Isle Of Dreams should be followed in the Try Racing TV For Free Now Classified Stakes.

Declan Carroll's filly was a surprise winner at Catterick in April, but she has since proved that was no fluke with two sound efforts in defeat.

She was beaten just a nose in handicap company here in mid-May off 49 here in May and the handicapper left her on that mark, allowing her to run in this 0-50 contest.

By MIKE FRANCIS

With 5lb claimer Zak Wheatley keeping the ride, a bold bid is anticipated.

Thirk punters are advised to put their faith in Craven in the opening British Stallion Studs EBF Restricted Novice Stakes.

The fact the Havana Gold colt was a 25-1 shot on his debut for the powerful Richard Fahey yard suggests he was not well fancied at York, but he outran those odds to finish second to hot favourite Cold Case.

The winner had already shown a good level of ability by finishing second to the high-class Carmela on his introduction at Carlisle, so for Craven to get within a length and a half of him on the Knavesmire was a fair effort.

He should have no trouble going one better in North Yorkshire.

The Michael Dods-trained Langholm can continue his profitable campaign with victory in the Celebrating Racing's Workforce Handicap.

The six-year-old won here in April and doubled his tally for the season at Catterick last month, taking him to a career-high rating of 68. While the assessor is bound to catch up with Langholm eventually, there was a degree of authority about his latest triumph and he should prove hard to beat on a course that clearly suits.

Sheer Rocks is expected to make the most of having his sights lowered at Bath.

The three-year-old won at Chepstow and at this track to round off an unbeaten juvenile campaign, but a tilt at the Blue Riband Trial at Epsom on his return proved a bridge too far.

Beating

He was only beaten two lengths when staying-on to finish fifth in a hot handicap at Sandown last time, though, and might be too hot to handle for his older rivals in the Mike Ford Birthday Blaythway Plate.

Saeed bin Suroor's Dubai Welcome has already won once and finished second twice at Kempton and can give weight and a beating to his rivals on his return to Sunbury for the Unibet 3 Uniboosts A Day Handicap.

Jumping fare comes from Worcester, where a hat-trick could be in the offing for Neil Mulholland's Ballymilan in the Cazoo Handicap Chase.

THE SUMMER TRANSFER WINDOW IS WIDE OPEN

Bluebirds chief Tan eyes Bale for 2023

CARDIFF OWNER STILL HOPES TO GET GARETH AFTER QATAR WORLD CUP

CARDIFF boss Vincent Tan still hopes to sign Gareth Bale before he hangs up his boots.

The Wales legend has signed for Los Angeles FC on a 12-month contract rather than head back to his home town now to get ready for the World Cup.

Bale, whose contract at Real Madrid expires in the next few days, announced his move to the Major League Soccer side in a video posted on social media.

Excited

The Wales captain had been strongly linked with a move to hometown club Cardiff ahead of the World Cup in November.

But Bale chose to head to California instead and said: "I am extremely excited for this move to LAFC."

"This is the right place for me and my family and the right time in my career and

By ANDY MILLOM

I cannot wait to get started working with the team and getting ready to win more trophies in Los Angeles."

It had been reported that Bale might retire after the World Cup in Qatar, but LAFC co-president and general manager John Thorrrington said that both parties were hoping to form a "long-term partnership".

In a statement officially declaring the deal, the MLS club said: "LAFC announced today that the club has signed forward Gareth Bale to a 12-month contract using Targeted Allocation Money with options through 2024."

"Bale will occupy an international roster slot."

The update that Bale, who turns 33 next month, could extend his career into 2024 would appear to be good news for Wales before their Euro 2024 qualifying campaign starts in March.

The 106-times capped Bale quashed international retirement rumours last summer by saying he would represent Wales for as long as he played football.

Thorrrington said: "Gareth is one of the most dynamic and exciting attacking players of his generation."

"Adding a player who brings the talent and experience at the highest levels that Gareth does is an incredible opportunity to continue to improve our club."

Calibre

"Gareth is highly motivated to continue to win trophies and we are elated that he has made the choice to join LAFC and help lead us in our ultimate goal of winning championships."

LAFC lead managing owner Larry Berg added: "Bringing a player and a person of Gareth's calibre to LAFC is a historic moment for Los Angeles, MLS and the game in the United States." Cardiff owner

Vincent Tan claimed earlier that Bale could make the move to the Welsh capital next summer.

Tan said: "His contract is for 12 months, let's see what happens."

"Maybe Gareth, by then, will probably want to come back and come home and serve his country, serve Cardiff, his hometown."

"He has never played in Cardiff, he and his family are fans of the club."

"So, hopefully, in 12 months' time, he is still young, he will only be 34, some players come back and play until they are 40 years old."

"So he has still got a few years he can play and hopefully he will come and play for Cardiff after this contract with LAFC finishes."

On the proposed Bale deal, Tan added: "We were very, very keen, he would have been a big coup for us."

"It would have been great for Gareth to play for his hometown, all the Welsh would be very happy if Gareth returned home and played for Cardiff."

"Personally, I think LAFC's offer was too attractive for him to turn down. But originally he really wanted to come, the money wasn't the matter."

"We came up with what we thought was a good offer to him, but finally it was very hard to compete when there is a lot of big American advertisers, a lot of commercial deals which were very good for Gareth."

Failed

"Initially with Gareth, it wasn't really the money, he just wanted to help Cardiff and help Wales. That's why we could negotiate with him."

"He tried his best to join us but eventually I think the offer from LAFC was just too big to turn down."

"We tried our best but we failed."

HAPPY: Areola

Areola staying at Hammers for keeps

By WES KIRBY

WEST Ham have completed the permanent signing of goalkeeper Alphonse Areola from Paris St Germain.

The Hammers have recruited the 29-year-old on a five-year deal, after his successful loan stint in east London last season.

The France stopper revealed he had no qualms making the permanent switch, with manager David Moyes also delighted.

"I feel good, I feel great, I'm happy to sign and happy to stay here permanently and I can't wait to start to train and to do the job," said Areola.

"The main thing is that I felt the love of the supporters last season. Something for me that is really important is to feel that I'm loved."

"I know that I have to do my job and to do everything to make them happy, and obviously also the team, my teammates, the staff and Xavi Valero as well. The vibe of last season was great, so I just wanted to do everything to stay here."

"I feel comfortable, I feel like when I'm signing in a club, I want to feel that it's like my second family. Obviously, we're here every day and we are sharing lots of times together, so I have to feel comfortable with everyone and feel them comfortable with me as well, so I just feel comfortable here."

The Hammers are expected to chase a deal to bring Jesse Lingard back to the London Stadium on a free transfer too, while Chelsea's Armando Broja is understood to be another target.

Hammers boss Moyes hailed the permanent capture of Areola however, by adding: "Alphonse made a huge contribution to the club during his loan spell last season. His performances backed up why we see him as a top goalkeeper."

"He brings proven quality and experience at the highest level, on the domestic and international scene."

YANKED OFF: Bale has signed for Los Angeles FC

MENTALITY MONSTERS

SPORT QUIZ

ENGLAND captain Ben Stokes has told county cricket's Test hopefuls to watch and learn from his side's fearless approach against New Zealand if they want to join the ranks.

Stokes has brought about a remarkable revolution in his first three games as skipper, revitalising a side who had won just one of the last 17 Tests and chalking up a hat-trick of thrilling victories over the format's reigning world champions.

Stokes has never been one to take a backward step on a cricket field and his partnership with head coach Brendon McCullum, who was also known as one of the most attacking players of his generation, has had a profound effect.

A side once gripped by fear has thrown off the shackles in stunning fashion, batting with an undiluted aggression that has yielded fireworks and showing the same spirit of adventure in the field.

Almost as soon as Jonny Bairstow put the finishing touches to a 3-0 series sweep with a six into the Headingley stands England announced that the same group of players had been picked to face India at Edgbaston on Friday.

That meant an unchanged squad of 14, plus wicketkeeper Sam Billings who replaced Ben Foakes in Leeds as a COVID substitute and stays on as cover.

And Stokes has made it clear that anybody who wants to force their way into the set-up would be judged on their style as well as their statistics.

By GEOFF TRUEMAN

"I think these last three games should have sent a message to people who aspire to play Test cricket for England over the next two or three years," he said.

"People watching know what they have to do to try and bang the door down and get in this team.

"It's about the manner and the way that you're going to play, whether that be with a ball or a bat in your hand. It's not necessarily your stats, it's the manner that you play which is going to be first and foremost in the selectors' minds.

Attitude

"What we want to do is build on this. It's about the future as well and what I think we've done over the last three weeks is make people enjoy watching Test cricket again.

"If we were on the wrong side of results, if they played the same way but we lost, I would have walked off a very happy captain with the way everybody's applied themselves and the attitude they've given to every single day, every single session, every single hour of these three Tests matches."

Stokes' words will resonate around the domestic game, and the trickle down may have started if Sam Curran's rapid-fire century for Surrey is anything to go by.

"I knew that everyone would buy into the new mentality me and Brendon set out, but I didn't think it would go this well to be honest," he confessed.

"Coming away with a 3-0 victory over the world Test champions is a great start and something to build on and make sure we keep carrying this mindset forward."

HOW ENGLAND RATED AGAINST NEW ZEALAND

ZAK CRAWLEY: On paper, the Kent man is the perfect opener for England's new era of attacking cricket. But he has looked horribly out of place at the top of the order, averaging just 14.50 and inviting questions over his future. 3/10

ALEX LEES: Looked a different player to the nervy, shot-shy debutant who appeared in the West Indies. He set the tone for a brilliant run-chase at Trent Bridge with a fluent 67. 6.5

OLLIE POPE: Surprisingly promoted to number three after some indifferent form further down, the Surrey man overcame a slow start at Lord's to make a fine century in the second Test. He signed off with a flowing 82 and can now settle into the role. 8

JOE ROOT: Dispersed any doubts about how he might perform after relinquishing the captaincy with an outstanding series. He averaged a Bradman-esque 99, scored two hundreds, passed 10,000 Test runs and returned to number one in the world rankings. 9.5

JONNY BAIRSTOW: Has ascended to an entirely new plane of batting craft and, very probably, redefined his Test career in the space of three matches. His back-to-back centuries in the first two Tests were outright classics and he finished off in a blaze of glory. 10

BEN STOKES: It is impossible to quantify his impact as captain, picking up a side at a low ebb after one win in 17 matches and turning them into swaggering victors. He is an instinctive, inspirational leader who has brought belief to the team and shows how he wants things to be done with the bat. 8

BEN FOAKES: Hailed as 'the best wicketkeeper in the world' by Stokes, his first home series was broadly successful until he came down with Covid-19. A wobbling Dukes ball made life tricky at times behind the stumps but he batted resourcefully. 6

MATTHEW POTTS: Handed his first Test opportunity due to a raft of injuries in the pace ranks, the 23-year-old was a revelation. He was England's top wicket-taker of the series with 14 at 23.28 and he looks to the manor born. 8.5

STUART BROAD: Feared for his career after being axed for the West Indies, the veteran seamer looked visibly thrilled to be back. He played cheerleader with the crowds and took 12 of the 13 wickets he needed to reach 550 in Test cricket. 7

JACK LEACH: When his first home Test in three years ended with a concussion after less than an hour in the field, the spinner's bad luck appeared to be back. But England kept the faith and he signed off with a first ever 10-wicket match at Headingley. 7

JAMES ANDERSON: Missed the series finale with an ankle injury, but still pocketed 11 wickets at 18.63. At 40 years of age he is still the market leader with a new ball in hand. 7

JAMIE OVERTON: Brought in at Headingley to bring 90mph pace to the attack, but instead did his best work with the bat as he scored a debut knock of 97. Purely as a bowler, looks to be ahead of his more experienced twin brother Craig. 7

NEW GUNNER: Turner

Gunners grab US goalie Turner

ARSENAL have signed American international goalkeeper Matt Turner from New England Revolution.

The 28-year-old is their third signing after moves for young Brazil forward Marquinhos and Portugal Under-21 international Fabio Vieira.

Turner has signed a three-year contract with the option of a fourth year.

"The good thing was I got to follow along the tail-end of last season and watch every game Arsenal was playing," Turner said.

"It really felt like I was a part of it which was interesting, but I did have a slight injury that kept me out for a bit so really my focus in this past few months was just getting back to full fitness, and then playing some games to get a rhythm, and that's leading into the start of pre-season here."

Turner's arrival casts further doubt over Bernd Leno's future at the Emirates, the Germany international having lost the number-one spot to Aaron Ramsdale after his arrival from Sheffield United last summer.

Qualify

Leno has been linked with newly-promoted Fulham, with Turner now expected to play the role of back-up to Ramsdale.

Turner joined the Revolution in 2016, picking up 18 caps for the US and helping them qualify for the 2022 World Cup, where they will face England and Wales in the group stages.

He revealed he has already been working with Arsenal goalkeeper coach Inaki Cana.

"We've had pretty close contact," he added.

"Especially once I was back playing games, looking at things, clips and just talking about games, and looking at training clips, and those kinds of things, so the back and forth was really, really nice, so again, that's another way of just feeling like I was part of the club, even though I wasn't here in north London."

Arsenal's summer business is likely to continue, with Man City striker Gabriel Jesus closing in on a move to north London, while Leeds forward Raphinha has also been linked.

MASSIVE MOVE BACK TO LONDON

CHELSEA GOSTER CRAZY!

Raheem's sick of sitting on the City bench and wants to sign for Tuchel

CHELSEA are edging closer towards a deal to take Raheem Sterling to Stamford Bridge.

The Blues are thought to be hopeful of quickly striking a fee with Manchester City, with Sterling understood to be keen on the west London switch.

England forward Sterling would represent the kind of marquee signing that new Chelsea chief Todd Boehly promised when the US magnate completed his Blues takeover alongside main consortium partners Clearlake Capital.

Sterling would add extra dynamism to the Blues' overall play, but also boost both creativity and goal threat.

Chelsea are also understood to have genuine designs on both Leeds forward Raphinha and his Brazil teammate, Everton's Richarlison.

Sterling remains Chelsea's top target, but the Blues are understood to be prepared to push through on deals for both Raphinha and Richarlison too.

By PAUL THOMAS

Stamford Bridge chiefs would not expect to complete all three deals, but are thought to want to keep their options open amid a hectic summer's transfer dealings.

Technical director Petr Cech's Stamford Bridge departure has left co-controlling owner Boehly and manager Thomas Tuchel in full control of the Blues' transfer business.

New chairman Boehly and German coach Tuchel now hope to capitalise on the streamlined recruitment hierarchy in a set-up understood to be designed to boost clarity and swift decision-making.

Juventus' Matthijs De Ligt is also understood to have become the Blues' main defensive transfer target, with Timo Werner likely to be offered in a player-plus-cash proposal.

The Blues are now expected to prioritise a deal for Holland defender De Ligt over previous top target Jules Kounde.

Chelsea were thwarted in their aims to sign Sevilla defender Kounde last season by the Spanish club's negotiations over a transfer fee.

Influence

Kounde had been the Blues' long-term top target, but the personnel changes since Chelsea's takeover are understood to have seen priorities shift.

Chelsea will conduct the search for a new sporting director in tandem with their summer transfer business.

Boehly will fill the role on an interim basis this summer, with the likes of former Liverpool man Michael Edwards and Monaco's Paul Mitchell in the frame for the permanent job. Tuchel is expected to assume more responsibility and influence on transfers in the Boehly era, even once the changes are complete.

The former Paris St Germain coach had only high praise for the structure under Roman Abramovich, where Marina Granovskaia and Cech handled transfer dealings allowing him to focus the majority of his energies on coaching.

The extra responsibility of the new set-up is understood to be no concern for Tuchel however, with the savvy tactician thought to be enthused by the fresh impetus after the takeover was completed.

If Richarlison could be heading to Stamford Bridge from Goodison, a couple of Chelsea players could be heading in the opposite direction.

Conor Gallagher forced his way into the England squad with his energetic performances on loan at Crystal Palace last season.

But he has been told by Tuchel

ON FOR ENGLAND FORWARD

UPSIDE DOWN:
Sterling wants to shake up his career with a move that he can look for a permanent move to enhance his chances of making Gareth Southgate's World Cup squad.

And Scotland midfielder Billy Gilmour could be heading to Everton with him as former Chelsea boss Frank Lampard looks to overhaul his midfield.

The Toffees boss also likes the look of Harry Winks from Tottenham and Manchester City's versatile Oleksandr Zinchenko.

Deals

Everton need more bodies in the middle of the park with Fabian Delph leaving and he's likely to be followed out of the club by Andre Gomes who is wanted by teams in Europe.

Deals for Gilmour and Gallagher could be easier to push through if Richardson ends up going to Stamford Bridge.

The two midfielders are thought to be worth around a total of £30m and the Toffees could receive a similar amount in cash for the Brazilian.

Richardson arrived at Everton from Watford and the Hornets could provide his replacement.

Emmanuel Dennis is the man in Lampard's sights after the London side dropped into the Championship.

He chipped in with 10 goals and six assists in a team that struggled right through the season.

That was just his first campaign in the top flight and the 24-year-old has room to improve.

He is valued at around £20m so Everton could bring him in with the Richardson cash even if Gallagher and Gilmour are used as part of a swap deal.

Adama Traore and Lucas Moura are other players being linked with Everton but Dennis is thought to be the Nol choice to replace the Brazilian.

Arsenal secure £45m deal for Jesus

ARSENAL have not closed their cheque-book despite securing a deal for Gabriel Jesus.

The Gunners have paid what looks a fair £45m to Man City for the Brazil striker.

He wanted the move south to get more first-team football with the World Cup looming this winter.

The 25-year-old has penned a deal until 2027 after passing his medical.

Having lost Alexandre Lacazette, Arsenal boss Mikel Arteta was keen to bring in experienced firepower up front. Now the Gunners are looking to beef up their defence with a move for Ajax stopper Lisandro Martinez.

They will face opposition from Manchester United who have an advantage because of former Ajax boss Erik Ten Hag taking their hotseat.

The Dutch giants will want around the same fee that Arsenal have just forked out for Jesus – and have made it clear that they have no need to sell this summer.

Arteta has had a bid of just under £30m turned down and is thought to have beefed that up towards the £35m mark.

Arsenal have also shelled out £30m for Fabio Vieira from Porto in what has been a busy window.
